

The War

Leeland

The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want
You lead me in the paths of Your righteousness
In these green pastures I'll sing a song
I will fear no evil in life or death

Though my enemies rise against me
I know that you are with me
I know that You are always for me

Your Fighting all my battles
So I'm standing in your victory
You prepare a table
In the presence of my enemies
You've already won the war

The Lord is my warrior, my sun and shield
Your Word is the sword that shatters fear
You watch over me and count my steps
Your love and affection so furious

Your voice thunders from the heavens
Breaking through this desert
Shouting I am your defender

Your Fighting all my battles
So I'm standing in your victory
You prepare a table
In the presence of my enemies
You've already won the war

The battle's not mine but Yours...

Your Fighting all my battles
So I'm standing in your victory
You prepare a table
In the presence of my enemies
You've already won the war
