

All hail the kingpin, the one with soul, who's in control. With the poker face stare, never concerned, always giving orders.
Do you know this man?
Well if you don't I think you should. Shake his hand;
he's the modern day robin hood.

Walk along the wire, the risk is always higher. Walking fine lines helps you pass the time.
He doesn't care what you have to say cause he knows that he's getting paid. Who's knows any other way?
Go for broke-do what cha gotta do.

You know what i'm saying. Go for broke-do what cha gotta
do. You know what I say.
You can go for yours, but you better have some respect.
Cause you don't want a man like that to connect-NO.
He justifies-eye to an eye. Take his side or go for a ride.
