Can you feel my suffering? Or any of my pain. Those sleepless nights drove me insane.

Their dishonesty took me away.

Yet they still had nothing to say. So, you'll ruin me huh? We'll see about that.

I've got the soul of a dragon that'll burn you boy. Ill play with you like a child plays with his toys, separate the men from the boys.

So you follow-you follow your hero. Cause he ain't no hero, no way. So you follow-you follow your hero. Cause he ain't no hero, mikey play. Follow.

You take away my treasure, and we'll go to war. Either you or me have got to go-so we'll go to war-if that's the way you want it.

If that's what you need, we'll go to war-if that's the way you want it.

If that's what you need, we'll go to war. So c'mon, you're no hero. Take me on, you're no hero. You are gone, you're no hero.
