

Warhounds of Hades

Legion of the Damned

Columns clad in armour appear on the horizon dark
Arrival of the armies of the damned
Hellish commanders fought many bloody campaigns

Seasons of death and war are at hand

War hounds of Hades
War wolves of hate
War hounds of Hades
War wolves of fate

Armies awakened by the stench of the horseman's breath
Companies of ill repute, free mercenaries of death
Leaders and their troops thriving in perpetual conflict
Submission or destruction are the final demands

War hounds of Hades
War wolves of hate
War hounds of Hades
War wolves of fate

Scavenging the kingdom, ravaged and pillaged
Devastation, conquest, hunger, and death
Imperial ambitions in the realm of crown and cross
Have summoned the hounds of war
Warlord conquerors with an iron fist
Claim what they deem theirs
Chthonian powers of devastation
Spawning their destructive heirs
Blades are bloodied and axes hack
Death as far as man can see
A ferocious storm of stone and steel
Wolves march to destiny
Battering rams crush through the pounded gates
A hail of stone, steel, and fire is unleashed
Siege bombardment takes its toll
These proud walls will crumble and fall

Men and steel forged in the fires of Hades
Faces hardened and scarred
Savage masters are crowned in glory
And the dogs savour the spoils of war

War hounds of Hades
War wolves of hate
War hounds of Hades
War wolves of fate
