

Dream Eater

Lemuria

I really want to be just like him Can't even count all of his friends Shaking hands, hugging, patting backs, "Man, how ya been?" I really want to be just like him

He's got to be a millionaire I bet he also collects art

Does he see me sitting here like this? Does he think about my life, like I do his? If I was grown up, would he like me? If I was grown up, would he like me? Does he think about my life, like I do his?

If I'm going to be anybody I better be someone who collects art

Open mouth care expression on you Probably true, what I heard about you Open mouth care expression on you Probably true, what I heard about you

I lost focus of the blog I know Stopped turning, now oscillates slow I'm pretty sure it won't get better But it's real pretty to think so

I wish I didn't know what I didn't used to know I wish I didn't know what I didn't used to know
