

The Origamists II

Lemuria

My eyes augment the pleasure of our colliding skin
Sliding through you Plotting your own death on that denim couch that I found hideous to help the public realize that you're some kind genius I've got to hand it to you those paintings aren't that great Hey
I'm no Buddy Rich and you ain't Monet
I like your body
I think it's sexy
I want to make origami
All you want to do is make stains on a canvas with paint
Let's compromise and play shadow charades
