

I Tried To Rock You But You Only Roll

Leona Naess

Hear me now like you did back then
With an underground feeling and a solid goal, oh
So feel me now like you did back then
With an overgrown healing tried sealing my soul

Got so scared got so tired
Doin' everything wrong, doing everything right

Got two guitars to play my songs
Got many rights to kill my wrongs
Got a smile that'll knock you down
I got friends who will follow me

And I don't own responsibility
But I know what I am
And I know that I'm right
Yeah yeah yeah

My arms are reachin' out to let you go
I tried to rock you but you only can roll
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within

I was wrong to put you up there
With a ton of dead heroes and a ton of dead songs
But you came to me like a casual dream
Slow to begin, put a smile on my skin

Got a head full of new ideas
I got music bleeding from my ears
And people who believe in me
I got miles and miles of things to see

Nothin' relates to you and me
And I know what I am
And I know that I'm right
Yeah yeah yeah

My arms are reachin' out to let you go
I tried to rock you but you only can roll
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within

Yeah, yeah yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah yeah, yeah
1,2, 3, 4

My arms are reachin' out to let you go
I tried to rock you but you only can roll
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within

My arms are reachin' out to let you go
I tried to rock you but you only can roll
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within

Oh no [Incomprehensible]
Oh no [Incomprehensible]
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within

Oh no [Incomprehensible]
Oh no [Incomprehensible]
The ink you spilt across my skin, yeah
Is sinkin' deeper within
