

Sometimes I wish I were a boy

Lesley Gore

Sometimes, ya sometimes, I wish I were a boy!

I've been standing by the jukebox
Hoping he'd asked me to dance
How I wish I could run to him and hug him
But a girl musn't make advance

Oh-oh-oh, I'm a girl and it's wonderfull
It fills my heart with joy
but sometimes, ya' sometimes, I wish I were a boy

Oh he's dancing with another
And he's holding her so tight
Wish I had nerve to cut right in and stop it
But a girl has to be polite

Oh-oh-oh, I'm a girl and it's wonderfull
It fills my heart with joy
but sometimes, ya' sometimes, I wish I were a boy

Now the record hop is over
And I think he caught my eye
Here he comes heading straight in my direction
There he goes he's passing me by

Oh-oh-oh I'm a girl and it's wonderfull
It fills my heart with joy
But sometimes, ya sometimes, I wish I were a boy
Sometimes, ya sometimes, I wish I were a boy
Sometimes, ya sometimes, I wish I were a boy
Sometimes, ya sometimes, I wish I were a boy!
