

What's A Girl Supposed To Do?

Lesley Gore

He dropped me till my door
And said he's glad he found me
I've always waited for
He put his arms around me

And the stars were bright in the sky
He looked down deep in my eyes
What's a girl supposed to do?
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
But kiss him
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
So I kissed him

Now we just meant that night
I felt I always knew it
So I knew it was right
To give my kisses to him

Then he said he wanted to show
And my heart said come, let us go
What's a girl supposed to do?
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
But hold him
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
So I held him

Oh, he said he loved me again
I had to kiss him again
What's a girl supposed to do?
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
He loves me
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
And I love him

I love him too
Oh yes, I do
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
Yeah, yeah, I love him too
(What's a girl supposed to do?)
Yes, I love him too
