

And Hollow

Lethian Dreams

Out of another world you come to me
And hollow as the tomb
Sound the indifferent words that speak my doom

And hollow, hollow can it be
And hollow, hollow can it be

My voice that sounds
so strangely in my ears
Beckon to you across a mist of tears

And hollow, hollow can it be
And hollow, hollow can it be

All's over now I know that you are lost
And love is dead for I have met Love's ghost
You bid me speak, and I, in dumb despair
Forgetting all my agonies of prayer

All's over now I know
For I have met Love's ghost
All's over now
All's over now
