

Toward The Void

Lethian Dreams

Just in the end Opening your eyes to see what might have been and what is done
Now it's too late

You're dying

Hours of suffering I crawl
through madness
The line of death
Guides me through this mess

You're dying
after the agony of life
with your regrets
Nothing could have change your way Through this world of despair
You surrender to your fate Cause nothing is left but regret Life wasn't meant to be lived but to be lost

Hours of suffering I crawl
through madness
The line of death
Guides me through this mess

You're dying
after the agony of life
with your regrets
