

Land Of Flames

Leverage

1. Left his soul behind on the no-man's land
A long time ago, in the name of pride of his oath, of his faith, love of his fatherland.

Their time had come,
stand up and fight
Their time had come,
fight for your life.

Ref:
Flames
The world was on fire
Take no names,
just kill or die.

Land of flames, the glory of dying
Land of flames, their souls thrown in fire
Land of flames, stage for the devil's own play.

2. No, you'll never see him cry
His mind was numbed by a thousand goodbyes
Oh, his tears were dried
In the fire, on the graves, gates of eternity.

Their time had come, stand up and fight
Their time had come, fight for your life.

Ref: Flames...

'Did it ever cross your mind how much
We owe to those who gave their lives for us
Nothing left but names carved in stone
He's the last man standing, the pain never ending.

Ref: Flames...

The world was on fire,
Just kill or die,
Stage for the devil's own play.
