

Even A Fool Would Let Go

Levon Helm

It's funny how love goes
'Cause I know this will never work out
But honey, how love grows
Even though there's no reason to doubt
This can never be
You keep saying it's wrong
Neither one of us is free
But still I want to hold on

When even a fool would let go
'Cause he knows that there's no use trying
Even a child would say no
When he knows that he'll end up crying
Tell me now, is it worse holdin' you
Even a fool would let go

Our love has no reason
Like the words in a song that don't rhyme
Our love's got no season
I just know that it's there all the time
Maybe just you and me
I can't believe that's wrong
Thinking 'bout you and me
It makes me want to hold on

When even a fool would let go
'Cause he knows that there's no use trying
Even a child would say no
When he knows that he'll end up crying
Tell me now, is it worse holdin' you
Even a fool would let go

So tell me now, is it worse holdin' you
When even a fool would let go
