

Don't Get Me Wrong

Lewis Capaldi

Pray silence, I'm begging
Too tired to tell you I ain't coming home
Stop for a second
Guess I got caught up in leading you on
But I ain't responsible for the lump in your throat

Haven't you had enough of all of this?
Haven't you had enough of loneliness?

Don't get me wrong, I'd love to stay too long
Don't get me wrong, I'd love to tell you whatever you want
But haven't you had enough of loneliness?
And haven't we had enough of second best?
Don't get me wrong

Innocent then, way back before we knew how to pretend
Picking up where we left
It ain't meant to be easy, should it be hard as this?
And I ain't responsible for letting this go

Haven't you had enough of all of this?
Haven't you had enough of loneliness?

Don't get me wrong, I'd love to stay too long
Don't get me wrong, I'd love to tell you whatever you want
But haven't you had enough of loneliness?
And haven't we had enough of second best?
Don't get me wrong
Don't get me wrong

I just don't wanna be the devil, you know
And it hurts the most when you come too close

So, don't get me wrong, I'd love to stay too long
Don't get me wrong, I'd love to tell you whatever you want
But haven't you had enough of loneliness?
Haven't we had enough of second best?
Don't get me wrong
