

Weekend

Liam Payne

Yeah

I said it wrong, but I meant it right
But you're the only one who would know
Yeah, it's so faded, right?
But I was the one
I almost lost my nerve for less than I deserve, yeah
I got it wrong, but I made it right
You know I made it right
You said it's done, but it's not done

I come alive on the weekend
I might die on the weekend (Might die, might die, might die)
Another line for my demons
I might die on the weekend (Might die)
I talk low, better lean in
I say, "Keep up," she can't even
I come alive on the weekend
I might die on the weekend

How did we end up here like this? (Yeah)
I see the midnight on your lips
Every time you come around
And if there's nothing more than this (Nothing more than this)
That's okay, but one more time before you're gone
We said it's done, but it's not done

I come alive on the weekend
I might die on the weekend (Might die on the weekend)
Another line for my demons
I might die on the weekend (Yeah, yeah)
I talk low, better lean in
I say, "Keep up," she can't even (Yeah, yeah)
I come alive on the weekend
I might die on the weekend

Everybody's got their own vice
Do you think about me when you're alone?
It kinda got to me last night after everyone was gone
If there's one thing that I've learned
Only you can stop the hurt
Yeah, it's 'bout time that I realize it's a lost fight
I said it's done, but it's not done
No, no, I said it's done, but it's not done
Yeah, yeah, I said it's done, but it's never done

I come alive on the weekend (Might die)
I might die on the weekend
Another line for my demons (Another line)
I might die on the weekend (Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
I talk low, better lean in (No, no)
I say, "Keep up," she can't even (Keep up, yeah, keep up, yeah)
I come alive on the weekend
I might die on the weekend
(I come alive, I come alive)
I might die on the weekend
(I come alive, might die)

I might die on the weekend
(Oh, no, no, no, no)
I might die on the weekend
(I come alive, might die)
I might die on the weekend
