

Arms of Danger

Lianne La Havas

Love, Heal my Mind
It's Bruised and I have swallowed all my Pride
Love, Release my Mind
It's Peace that I Can't Find
Forgot my Soul three years ago
Was barely Just Sixteen I,
I walk alone, from the nest I've flown
Into the Arms of Danger
And it's swallowed me whole,
And it's kidnapped my Self-Control
Leaving me with nothing but a heart that's on it's own.
Try your Hardest just to comprehend
That I'm not just that Bitch who stole your ex boyfriend
Please, I knew not what to do
But I know that he Loved you
I get so tired trying to exorcise
The demons i have raised Although, the truth is known now we walk Alone
Into the Arms of Danger
It's Digested us whole,
So we've got no more Self Control
Leaving me with nothing but a heart that's on it's own
She will never be cloned,
I am just a lonely soldier
And it swallowed me whole,
And it's kidnapped my Self Control
Leaving me with nothing but a heart that's on it's own
She will never be cloned,
I am just a lonely Soldier
Leaving me with nothing but a heart that's on it's own
