

Forget

Lianne La Havas

Waste all your time writing love songs
But you don't love me
All too familiar when it feels wrong
I think you're just lonely

Do you mind?
I found another new way to look at
Use your time to pack away
Your every verse and every rhyme

Forget all the words
That let you break my heart
Forget that I'm the person
Tearing you apart

Remember way back when you played me
Even I lost that hand
So please don't try to serenade me
I am a one man band

Say goodbye
Don't need to hear you play
So many other ways to lie
So pack away your every verse and every rhyme

Forget all the words
That let you break my heart
Forget that I'm the person
Tearing you apart

Forget all the words
That let you break my heart
Forget that I'm the person
Tearing you apart

I think it's time for me to leave
But I gave my piece of mind for free
So if you hear my sound advice
There is no need to tell you twice
There is no need to tell you twice

Forget all the words
That let you break my heart
Forget that I'm the person
Tearing you apart

Forget all the words
That let you break my heart
Forget that I'm the person
Tearing you apart

So if you hear my sound advice
There is no need to tell you twice
So if you hear my sound advice
There is no need to tell you twice
