

Walking all the days of my life I must have passed you by a thousand times Talking 'til the dawn breaks the night with so many friends by my side but I've never felt so alone

Cause I was waiting for a sign for my destination
When I saw you go the other way but I gotta keep on going
'til I find my way home
but maybe we'll meet another day.

I'm taking all that I can carry
But I don't know how much I can bear I heard there's so much more waiting for me Somewhere out there, somewhere somewhere

But I'm still waiting for a sign
for my destination
and I know you've gone the other way

So I'm gonna keep on going
'til I find my way home
and maybe we'll meet another day

Maybe there's a heaven up above and a devil down below and a story in the stars and an angel for me

But I'm still waiting for a sign
for my destination
know you've gone the other way but I'm gonna keep on going
'til I find my way home
maybe we'll meet another day
