

Black Lit Knights

Liege Lord

Burn the steel, link our mesh build the form hour's best Fit us for the fight swinging weapons engage tonight Raise the drawbridge take our posts a feast tonight salute and boast Darkness is the time we'll show no light
The black lit knights will engage tonight

Overcast skies hover over the rows Test the strength of their shields with our long bows Tales of past battles show glamorous fight
But not the pain endured by the black lit knights

Heavy weather douse out our fires informing prophets are crucif ied liars
Left behind to deal with traitorous lust
The wounded lie helpless encircled in dust

Rising sun but it's not over yet capture men hang under death's net
The air is dense the smoke rises high the boastful fight a trea cherous lie!
