Life of Agony

We once were one but now we just are over
We'll talk things out, perhaps I'll lend my shoulder
Now none is what we have become, we're falling
Where nobody knows, inside the unknown, still falling

I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within

In this life I've naturally grown bolder
In this life, desperation's frozen
As desperate as we are they see no movement
Stagnant situations can be fuming

I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within...

And now we're none...

I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within...

And now we're none...
