

Led by Misfortune

Lifelover

So, what am I?

A bad case of reverse schizophrenia the imaginary friend of everyone else a soulless terrorist with a message to spread with the worst upbringing possible and no emotions

I want others to hit rock bottom as well

Get in touch with their inhuman instincts and do hard drugs, be a free spirit become enlightened, become criminally insane
You need me, and I need you to be like me

We're the scum of the earth with nothing to lose
