I can't imagine a human race worth accepting
that can't accept a person who isn't his idea of perfect.
But I know the only thing we all have in common is that if god exists he hates us all.

And I can't imagine
how alone you must feel sometimes,
but I'm with you, we're in this together
trying to open up all these blind eyes.

I can't imagine a human race worth accepting
that can't accept a person who isn't his idea of perfect.
And they say that you are wrong but I can prove to you with thi s song
that you are worth every single word every single word

How can law be the final judge of who we are born to love?
How can law be the final judge of who we are born to love?

And I can't imagine
how alone you must feel sometimes,
but I'm with you, we're in this together
trying to open up all these blind eyes.

"You cannot live on hope alone, but without hope life is not worth living. "
