

Dormant Tide

Light This City

Passenger side
I can see why you gave it all up
Searching out through the glass
Looking from inside, but hiding from it all
You never wanted to be recognized

There's something wrong with a dormant tide
Are you settling or are you rising high?
I'm overcome enough to realize
The swell will cast its spell and we'll all break

Motherf*cker, you broke her
She couldn't laugh when it was over

Never wanted to open the door
Never wanted to risk a crash

There's something wrong with a dormant tide
Are you settling or are you rising high?
I'm overcome enough to realize
The swell will cast its spell and then we'll all break

She woke up
We are breaking
Wait for the dormant tide to wake
She woke up
We are breaking

Wait for the break
