

I Am the Hellraiser

Lil B

A lot of rappers on my list
This is real
I'm the hellraiser
Yeah

I came the hellraiser
Understand my mind
I trip sometimes
I think I'm blind, that makes me trip some more (laughs)
The rap game is simple
Complex to a few
I elevate myself
Level up like a saiyan
Can't contain him
Overrated to a small few
Grammy nomination, compose history
And they still won't understand what I do
I believe it
Ahead of my time, stuck in 2009
Why you stuck in the past
Rewind the tape please, I can't see the image clear
I guess I see what I wanna see
Kanye West I understand why you feel amazing
I feel amazing 'cuz my gift now is orchestrated
Transfer to the pages, based freestyle got me ahead of ages
I feel I skipped ahead of time
No watch on my wrist, it's on the pavement
I'm the hellraiser

Thank you BasedGod

I'm not a hip hop artist
Respect me as a legend
Bringing two and two together
It seems like I'm on the United Nations
Still don't get props for annihilating
This is positive so let me not deal with Satan
My face is a masterpiece, I had a portrait of myself
And created what I wanted to be
Took 20 years to a prophecy
Sitting long nights by myself
Still acknowledge the situation, I'm by myself
So it shows my competition is minimal (chuckles)
Really simple

I'm the hellraiser
I'm the hellraiser
I'm the hellraiser

This is not a diss record
I understand and study rappers
Homework is YouTube, field trips is outside
And your grade is life or death
We all fail at one point
Who's in detention? I know I am
I hold myself back
I look 'em right in they eyes, fireball like a phoenix

I come from the Earth I'm screaming
Want fame so I want demons
In my dreams, rapping when I'm sleeping
Couldn't speak what I'm saying even
Hellraiser the rap heathen
This is a joke, this is all a joke

I'm the hellraiser
I am the hellraiser
I am the hellraiser

Liabile, what I lie about?
Won't take the blame for you, criticism
I'm taking flames in the rapper's prison
I'm watching closely, holding high
Understand about the water tides
Plus I move in stride, who realize
The rawest alive
A show of hands, lift your hands
Understand I respect your mind
Impressed with your conversation
Not dollar signs, immune to the ego trips
Rappers, what you want?
I got posters of all of you, I study
And then I hunt the prey
You are my prey
Lil B is the hellraiser

I am the hellraiser
I am the hellraiser
Once again this is not a diss record
You rappers are on my hit list
I am the hellraiser
And no I'm not a hip hop artist
I'm something bigger
I am the hellraiser (yessss)
BasedWorld orchestra, strings please
Thank you
I am the hellraiser
Thank you BasedGod
No one could ever do this but BasedGod
Thank you
Rappers beware: I am the hellraiser
I am the hellraiser
