Don't fuck with me, man I'm keeping my eyes out
Keep the straps and the bag just in case I ride out
Homicide another day, new life, new breath, 2 blunts to the chest
Move sucker take steps,.. it takes my breath
You're top of the game, that's that boss' aim
Congratulations bitch for how far you came
Pat yourself on the back, that's the hardest thing
Nigga I'm still gangster but I'm smaller
I ain't gonn touch the gun, nah, and I ain't gonna use that water
I ain't gonn use those gloves because nothing is harder
Coming back from 10 years, serving half of your charges
Now you a starving artist, put your soul in the harness
Have you locked in the cage, they treat you bad regardless
I just speak what I know, I keep it based regardless
I just keep it so honest, these niggas is fronting
Without this rap game shit, I would be with nothing
That's the end of discussion, no bags, no hustling
Giving thanks to the world and giving thanks to the people
Man it's fire in my eyes but my flame's not lethal
Man we a different breed that change colors to city
Say you met lil b but I wouldn't believe you
I'm the man behind the power, I can see no cowards
I just take another shower, get my thoughts together
People dying every hour, why my nigga ain't make it
This shit make me so sour, no more power
People gave away that power, but I see that...
Even on the corner, I was different, you see
Even with the thugs, yeah I was realer,
Neck in neck with the killers, I still hand with the skrillers, fuck em
Yeah, and I'm stuck in the game, stuck with change
Stuck with the fame, stuck with the flame, I'm still stuck with my brain
Numbers and thangs, it's nothing but chains
Nothing but change, you feel me
I'm say it's nothing to change, but gotta handle bindess
That's the rules of the game
Lil b for lil boss, fuck these lames
