

My Everything

Lil Cuete

Girl I know its hard sometimes but I ain't lying
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything

Baby girl your my everything the air that I breath
That's why I always fell low every time that you leave
I just need you in my life see and nobody else
If I cant have you I rather be by myself
And you always stuck with me through the thick and the thin
That's why ill always call you my best friend
You'll always be my lady ain't nothing coming between us
We got them other couples jealous every time that they see us
And your so beautiful the only girl that's in my heart
You had my love locked down straight from the start
Ain't no changing that my love is where you at
And it will be that way until forever now
Until I'm gone away until I'm not around
I swear to god I love the way that you hold it down
The only one I need the only one I want
Just come and give me your all love girl and don't stop

Girl I know its hard sometimes but I ain't lying
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything
Girl I know its hard sometimes but I ain't lying
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything

And you will be my only one until the end of time
Until the sun don't shine, until the birds don't fly
That means forever I ain't going nowhere
Your family don't approve of me but still you don't care
Tattoo your lips on my hand show you I love you
Your name beautiful is you I place nobody above you
But only God but shoot I gotta thank him
He brought me to you I know we can make it
My baby girl, my love, my queen the one who my heart beats for My everything ill always be here for you every time you need me
I know you love me so you wont leave me and bird I feel the same
I couldn't go turn and walk away but you already know that I be hooked on you
Best believe its true I see my whole world every time I look at you

Girl I know its hard sometimes but I ain't lying
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything
Girl I know its hard sometimes but I ain't lying
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything

Now this song is dedicated to one girl and one girl only
The mother of my boys and the queen to my heart
Bird I love you and I want everyone to know it
But when times get hard remember this

Girl I know its hard sometimes (and I know it gets hard)
But I ain't lying (but I would never lie to you)
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything
(you really are my everything)
Girl I know its hard sometimes (I love you baby)
But I ain't lying (and I know you love me)
When I say to you your my everything, your my everything

(That's why your my everything)
