

Ghetto Mindstate (Can't Get Away)

Lil' Flip

WOOOO...new shit, Lil' Flip and Lyfe
(Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh)-talk to 'em Lyfe
(Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh)-talk to 'em Lyfe
(Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh)-Yea

I just can't go, I just can't stay
I just can't (you just what?)-I just can't get away
I just can't go, I just can't stay
I just can't (you just what?)-I just can't get away

Ay at fifteen I was makin moves drinkin beer-shootin dice at school (Yea) when most niggaz had a nine to five shiiit (fuck that shit) on the block we makin nine to five grand each day, yeah we got cheap yay my niggaz on lock they call me on three way (hello) the hood hot like a crock pot dope fiends cuttin yards for a twenty piece of crack rock around my way ain't nobody watchin Matlock we tryna hot wire cars, and break pad locks turn soft to hard drop it in Gladlock's and drive flashy cars and get mad props and still I want change Last week they caught my partner with a block of caine and can't no amount of money stop the pain They gave him 83 years his mama went insane (Damn)

Comin up with no father figure I guess that made me a harder nigga (why) cause I don't like to ask for shit when I came in the game with a half a brick (yes) but I ain't telling little kids to go that route but it's on TV everyday like they don't know that route and little girls bein fast, bein grown tryna flirt leavin home wearin pants, then change into a skirt I live in the ghetto, I stay in the ghetto run up wrong I'm sprayin that metal cause ain't shit sweet around my way all I know is one thing, how to get paid with Lyfe on the hook I know we got another hit this motivational music I know you feelin this Ay and I was raised in the church but where I'm from you gotta move that work

Why everybody tryna bring me down because of me they respect H-Town look I was here when y'all wasn't around the first week you did aight but then that shit went down

Why everybody tryna bring me down
because of me they respect H-Town
look I was here when y'all wasn't around
the first week you did aight but then that shit went down

They tell you, you was born to die yo'mama she was born to cry yo'woman she was born to lie hold you down so you can't feel life

I tell you that it's all a lie young nigga you just gotta try keep your eyes up on the sky don't let ya dreams pass you by...cause somebody said
