Lilly Wood & The Prick

What's the difference between being dead or alive?
Is it the state that I'm in that defines
Whether my heart is open or closed, my soul filled or empty
And my [?] decided to join the party

Will I lose myself again
If I keep persisting in this pain?
Will love find me again
If I hide in this place?

I'm gonna get up and leave (get up and leave)
Disappear, disappear, disappear
I wanna burn this bridge (burn this bridge)
And finally break free (finally break free)
I'm gonna get up and leave (get up and leave)
Disappear, disappear, disappear
I wanna burn this bridge (burn this bridge)
And finally break free (finally break free)

Who's gonna hold your hand when you push it all away?
Where do you stick your head when you don't want to see?
You're making yourself blind to reality
People like you never find the place they ought to be

Will I lose myself again
If I keep persisting in this pain?
Will love find me again
If I hide in this place?

I'm gonna get up and leave (get up and leave)
Disappear, disappear, disappear
I wanna burn this bridge (burn this bridge)
And finally break free (finally break free)
I'm gonna get up and leave (get up and leave)
Disappear, disappear, disappear
I wanna burn this bridge (burn this bridge)
And finally break free
