

L'enfance

Lilly Wood & The Prick

I remember running around
Braiding my hair before going to bed
Telling stories I believed in to myself
It's over now and long gone

Gone [x2]

I forgive my folks for making me
I forgive this life for happening to me
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end

I'm finding out who I really am
I don't like very much what I find
But these are the cards that I've been dealt
It's over now and long gone

Gone [x15]

I forgive my folks for making me
I forgive this life for happening to me
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end

I forgive my folks for making me
I forgive this life for happening to me
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end
I look ahead, but not so far, until the end
