He's All I Need

Lincoln Brewster

We all like to hide behind our different faces And we all like to pretend we're in different places I don't need anyone to give me approval And I don't mind if you laugh and call me a loser

Cuz He's all I need To live, to be He's my decree He's all I ever need

We all like to brave our faith when misplace it And we all like to call up too so when I make it But you and me, we don't need to steal or borrow Cuz we are kids of the King, of the great tomorrow

He's all I need To live, to be He's my decree He's all I ever need

Open Him, trust in Him, reach for Him Let the flood of God's tears drown the sea That should have never been, never been

He's all I need To live, to be He's my decree He's all I ever need
