When I Look In Your Eyes

Linda Eder

When I look in your eyes
I see the wisdom of the world in your eyes
I see the sadness of a thousand goodbyes
When I look in your eyes

And it is no surprise To see the softness of the moon in your eyes The gentle sparkle of the stars in the skies When I look in your eyes

In your eyes
I see the deepness of the sea
I see the deepness of the love
The love I feel you feel for me

Autumn comes, summer dies
I see the passing of the years in your eyes
And when we part there'll be no tears, no goodbyes
I'll just look in your eyes

Those eyes so wise, so warm, so real How I love the world your eyes reveal
