Success

Linda Perry

This is not the way it's Supposed to be

Spend my day in fear of all It sets me free

I beg your pardon For what I do and say I can hold myself to blame But the sure remains the same

Will success fail me? Will it make me free? What they tell me I should want? Is it what I need?

Hey Mom, Hey Dad The story went Round the burning wheels of faith It pays the rent

Hey sister, hey brother I had to choose Choose between the win and lose But what's the use?

Will success fail me? Will it make me free? What they tell me I should want? Is it what I need?

Come March come April Come may and June Let the pounding seconds go There's nothing I can do

Will success fail me? Will it make me free? What they tell me I should want? Is it what I need? (x 2)

Is there something I can do?
