

Stressed OUT!

Lion Babe

Stressed Out! Stressed Out!

You close your eyes just to get away
You order fries just to get away
You're passing by just to get away
Have a holiday in your head
I am a woman of the future
The type of giver from the soul
I can't prevent my sensitivity
Gets the best of me, cuts me like a rose

It's the little things that get to me
Don't wanna waste my time on what is stressing me
It's the little things, take a break
I don't wanna lose it for what I can't take

Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out
Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out

You drink a bottle just to get it out
Order another just to get it out of you
But then your head fills up with fear and doubt
Just to figure out, what you're gonna do
I was surrendered to the future
And everything I can control
You might be dealing with a heavy run
But don't lose the fun you deserve

It's the little things, that get to me
Don't wanna waste my time, on what is stressing me
It's the little things, (oh!) take a break
I don't wanna lose it for what I can't take

Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out
Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out

Take a moment for yourself, freedom
Take the time to be with no one else, be lonely
In the dark, you must see
You're okay

Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out
Why you wanna get stressed out?

I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out
Why you wanna get stressed out?
I don't wanna be stressed out
Stressed out
Stressed out
