

We Could Still Belong Together

Lisa Loeb

If I hold my breath
If I shut my eyes
If I disappear
Just for the afternoon

If I can't help shouting
If I lock you out
If it's not important
Completely unimportant
To anyone else but me

We could still belong together
And together is much better
We're okay so hey don't worry now
Oh wow

If I interrupt and
If I cut you off and
If I like attention
Other worse things I could mention

(2x):
We could still belong together
And together is much better
We're okay so hey don't worry now
Oh wow

But if you make a mistake
We're through

(2x):
We could still belong together
And together is much better
We're okay so hey don't worry now
Oh wow

Oh wow.

Yes I complicated I know
It's just my way but
If is a question
That I ask and nothing more.
