

Meet Me in the Red Sky

Liv Kristine

I promised with every breath
With every word I say
Solace and sympathy
You give me all the blame I can take

All you are
All you can take for yourself
All you can give
All I can forgive

Meet me in the red sky
See me cross the water
I'll find you when you're under
Hold you when you're feeling down
Hold you when you're under before you fall asunder
Meet me in the great red sky

I get closer with every step
With every prayer I say
Curse my identity
Then paint me all in white, I'm to blame
