Live

Born with your back to the God that
Spit you out on the riverbed
Angry with who? Me?
You better back up fool
I bet you took a gun to school too
But now nobody's taking your candy
You just keep on living this tragedy
Laladadadadada
To each his own ...

I wait for you to take my hand
Cos we need each other
We gotta love each other
Yeah

Born with your back to the God that
Picked you up by your puppy scruff
Angry with who? me?
You'd better back up fool
And be grateful that the real me's always hiding from you
Now nobody's taking your bicycle
Maybe somebody should take your microphone
Lalaladadadada
To each his own ...

I wait for you to understand
That we need each other
We gotta love each other
That we need each other

Someone should take your microphone
Someone should leave their life alone
Someone will take your bubblegum
Someone will take your life and run always, listen, always and you always walk in hallways
Try again, lie again,
I don't make love ...

I wait for you to take my...
I wait for you to take my hand
Yeah
Cos we need each other
You know, we gotta love each other
Cos we need each other, yeah
We gotta love, gotta love each other
We need each other, yeah
We gotta love each other
You know, we need each other, yeah
We gotta love, gotta love, each other
