

Blue Breeze

Livin' Blues

it's blue and lonely since you're gone every night i feel the pain gazing in a fire and mourn wishin' you were here again i'll be waiting till the breeze will bring you home now i know that i was wrong well it's seems like yesterday that i thought that love was strong strong enough to make you stay no one waiting till you come back home to me

...
please

yes i think i understand
you found yourself another man but you could never love the same way
'cause you gave the best part that you have

blue breeze tell me
is there nothin' i can do oooh nooo

ooh blue breeze

SOLO

you gave the best part that you have

blue breeze tell me
