

Freedom of Expression (F.O.X.)

Living Colour

I see what's happening, I got nothing to hide
You can't shut me up, treat me like a child
Won't sit back and just abide
Gonna let you know just what's going on in my mind

This time
I won't be denied
Yeah, yeah

You gotta do what you want (yeah)
You gotta say what you feel (yeah)
You gotta be who you are (yeah)
No apologies

The news you use has been falsified
To use my fear against me inside
Won't let you choose for me, pick a side
No left, no right, no middle, no divide

No black or white
Just wrong or right
Yeah, yeah

You gotta do what you want (yeah)
You gotta say what you feel (yeah)
You gotta be who you are (yeah)
No apologies

When you have a philosophy or a gospel
I don't care whether it's religious gospel or political gospel
Or economic gospel or a social gospel
If it's not going to do something for you and me right now
To hell with it

Oh yeah
