

Blood brought as an act of God
I am he the chosen to go
How I've acted yet [don't?] understand the gift of God has been given by His Son

I am in Christ, the son of God
I am in Christ, no longer condemned
I am in Christ, the son of God
I am in Christ
Resurrected

Who can be against me?
Who can compromise
The power of He is resting
It will glorify

A large veil before your eyes
I can only talk this way
The price is paid
By His blood
All I ask, is who am I?

I am in Christ, the son of God
I am in Christ, no longer condemned
I am in Christ, the son of God
I am in Christ
Resurrected

The lord to heal
The lord to breathe
The lord to be and to pity
God has come (Cornerstone?)
The time has come
So take hold of the promise
[Of You're?] the promise

The time has come
So take hold of the Blood
