It Won't Be For Long

All of my fears, finally come true.
All of these tears I cried for you.
All of the nights, all on my own.
All of your rights, all of my wrongs.
Come to me now, come to me now.
And don't I know how it feels to be down.
Well, I'm down, yeah I'm down.
And it's only 'cos she's not around.
Anymore, terrible dreams.
Dreams are for her, terrors for me.
It's days I can't take, the nights are bad too.
All of the times I've dreamed of you.
Come to me now, come to me now.
And don't I know how it feels to be down.
Well, I'm down, yeah I'm down.
And it's only 'cos she's not around.
Don't I know she's not around.
Oh, do you know where she'll be found.
Oh no, well I can't say
'Cos I'm moving on, well I've gone away.
Memories of her are all that remain.
Memories of her, of her and of me.
Come to me now, come to me now.
And don't I know how it feels to be down.
Well, I'm down, yeah I'm down.
But darling it won't be for long.
