

One More Smile

Locnville

Just give me 1 more smile, I'll see you in a while on the other
side
speaking 4 the now, when the sun arise, butter flies reaching i n the clouds, until we meet again my friend the end just can't be now
. (2x)

Its only the start your soul lives on, through the hearts of th ose left n
keeping it strong, though the water may be deep and the weather may be cold, every chance I get to speak, I know your blessing what I told,
and I know the waves embrace you with the water flowing slow ca use the home is where the heart is and the heart is where you go, a soldier
loved by many and he's marching to the light, a smile that over powers
all the hardships that we fight, a candle burns for your life a nd the world turns its sad it had to happen but we learn from your ter ms, before I let it go before I let it pass theres one thing that I
've got to
ask,

speaking 4 the now, when the sun arise, butter flies reaching i
n the
. (2x)

Now I'm siting here scencing the presence and in its essence it s in I reckon to do that I greatly respect and my recollection of sout hern
ventures that cause intervention now he's in the next dimension other whys known as heaven and I'm proud to have known him my glow wi th
the notion that he's with us all looking down at this moment my heart feels broken so many words left unspoken F*** it, Take me Why d o
you have to be the one that was chosen, but now the forces are good

I'm smiling down cause your surfing on rainbows and floating on clouds until we meet again my friend until the end I'm gonna ask of you to send me....

speaking 4 the now, when the sun arise, butter flies reaching in
the
