

Nothing To Forgive

Loick Essien

Can you hear me
Whispering into your ear
And you feel me
Cause I'm here with you still
Barely breathing
It's harder to move when you're losing, everything
When what you hold dear disappears
And you don't know what it is

Then you've got to give
Your heart
For what's worth fighting for
As long as you really live
Your life
There's nothing to cry for
Nothing to forgive
Cause when love is all there is
All that you've got you give

Just a poor kid
Caught in his brother's war
Couldn't take it anymore
Broke and busted
Confid and sober he gets up
Off the floor
By prejudiced minds
He gets sacrificed
And he don't know what it is

Then you've got to give
Your heart
For what's worth fighting for
As long as you really live
Your life
There's nothing to cry for
Nothing to forgive
Cause when love is all there is
All that you've got you give

Think about
Everything you've got, baby
Look around
The planet's not so big
Whatever you have you've got to got to give

As long as you really live
Your life
There's nothing to cry for
Nothing to forgive
Cause when love is all there is
You give

Can you hear me
Can you hear me
