

Such a wretched waste of time such a fool to be so blind serpents hide behind your eyes and I'm their prey tonight

Can we end this mind fuck please, your treachery's beyond belief must you bring us to our knees with your psychopathic tendencies?
Please be gone and rest assured I see you as you are, perverse with all your lies and empty words- I fear for you there is no cure.

Here we go another game designed to butcher someone's brain is that emotion I see feigned? all reason's lost on the insane

Sincerity has not been found beneath your self appointed crown these bitter tears in which I drown will soon be yours to drag you down
