

We are the shadows that no one wants to see
We are the blood that curses eternity

Perfect illusion of freedom's ideals
Horned are the masters of your world of lies

We hide in the dark
You don't know us yet we rule the world
Profits and slaves
Our engagements for the new age

No revolution danger, man is too self centered
His eyes cannot see so his mind cannot know

We hide in the dark
You don't know us yet we rule the world
Profits and slaves
Our engagements for the new age
