

This fuckin' band was born
As a tribute to metal
Without pretending
We live our passion
Some will always say
"Leave the 80s ehre they are"
I tell you we don't care
Cause that's what we stand for
We're not as proud of lonewolf
As we are proud of you
Cause if we're still around
We owe it only to you
You're the wolf's metal soul
Through raging waters and through storms
Still we are going on
Preaching the iron religion
And we will defend true metal 'til the end
Lonewolf
