

Through Fire, Ice And Blood

Lonewolf

Endless human columns
Are marching towards the east
We survived hell yet
We march
Into hellfire's feast
And we march
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We envy our comrades
Those who fell into battle
Yet we don't know that the worst
To come will follow the war
And we march
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
We march
Through fire, ice and blood
