

Towards the light

Lonewolf

Standing here alone in the rain
Time passes and my shadow grows
I'm left alone all this pain
Forgive me father tomorrow I'll be gone
To the world where I belong
A world somewhere far beyond
Leaving the darkness for the light
Leaving the ever lost fight
That was my life
The call of freedom
Whispers my name
As I fly towards the shining fight
Shiny razor blade in my hand
The cold steel cuts my veins
Lifeflow flows
I sleep in peaceful sleep
Opening the doors to eternity
To the world...
