

Unleash The Wolf

Lonewolf

Thunder and lightning
Raging through the night here comes the storm
Symbols, fires burn
The creatures of the night have been born

They flee from the light
Powers of darkness at their side
All what mortals fear
Gives them force to rise

Hell breaks loose
Tally Ho - unleash the wolf
Hell breaks loose
Into the fire - unleash the wolf

They chose to stay true
To themselves and to all those of their kind
Together they are strong
In a world so dark, they chose the light

They flee from the light
Powers of darkness at their side
All what mortals fear
Gives them force to rise

Hell breaks loose
Tally Ho - unleash the wolf
Hell breaks loose
Into the fire - unleash the wolf
