Tonight is great Breath
Don't stop with drinking rateEverywhere and every one minute, y ou must drink and survive your limit Cigaretes and friend's lighter, makes wonders with your ego of hunter
Smoke is all around of you, your feelings are so mixed When you try to kiss her, your heart explodes and beatsSo what' s now, every joke is hit,
so what's now, everything is shit
So what's now, every joke is hit, so what's now, everything is shitKeep your smile and listen to music, joint is here, so let's go to use it In your head now comedy is screening, cytes are weeping for joy and dying
You needn't be quiet, tell her something, whatever Desire gots you, to within the walls, foreverSo what's now, eve ry joke is hit,
so what's now, everything is shit
So what's now, every joke is hit,
so what's now, everything is shit
