

The Truth Song

Look-Out!

I don't want to make the worst of your life, I'm sorry.
Come on! Come on! Come on! It was the first time, when I hesitated, don't worry.
Spite in eyes, I can't hold it up. Come on! Come on! Come on! Say what's on, say what's on, say what's on your mind.

Kill me, please break up me. Clash me, but please excuse me!
Kill me, clash me. Save me, excuse me.
I wanna your love back, I wanna clear that time, I wanna seal this hole, now I walk the line.
Save me, excuse me.
Come into my house, come into my room, come into my bed, baby please don't turn.

Let me to show you, it was the last mistake. We must go on, go on, go on together and find the new way.
I'd like to believe that everything's gonna be alright.
Come on! Come on! Come on! Say what's on, say what's on, say what's on your mind.

Kill me, please break up me. Clash me, but please excuse me!
Kill me, clash me.
I wanna your love back, I wanna clear that time, I wanna seal this hole, now I walk the line.
Save me, excuse me.
Come into my house, come into my room, come into my bed, baby please don't turn.
